

hearing, it will have violated 28 USC § 455. The refusal of the District Court to make findings of fact and law and to rule on the claims presented would be violations of FR Civ P 52(a) and 54(b) and Due Process. Vague and conclusory rulings are also violations of Due Process. The failure to hold a hearing, Reynolds v. Cochran, 365 U.S. 525, 528, 533 (1961) on the verified claims is likewise a violation of Due Process. Arguably, the District Court has already violated 28 USC section 455, et al, by acting pursuant to a right lacking jurisdiction.

The “Rule of Necessity” requires some court hear these constitutional challenges. Will, supra. Another aspect of that Rule requires in a case of choice selection of the “lesser of two evils.” United States v. Bailey, 444 U.S. 394, 410 (1980) (construing Rule “in the context of a prison escape”). Under these exceptional circumstances, the Court should proceed promptly to hear this petition acting as an independent and unbiased court and to resolve with speed and finality the significant questions herein, or if it can not act without potential conflict, refer the case for hearing to the Supreme Court.

IX. ISSUE FIVE: THE JUDGE TRYING THIS CASE IS NOT AN ARTICLE III JUDGE

Petitioner has a right to be tried and, if found guilty, sentenced by an Article III judge. No such action occurred in this court.

1. The Judicial Officers Violated the Judicial Code

The magistrate and judge violated the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, Canon 1, Canon 2, and Canon 3 by acting outside of their authority and in excess of their jurisdiction. The magistrate and judge of this case indicted and confined Petitioner when as a matter of law he committed no crime, and the court had no jurisdiction. Furthermore, the judge of this case is believed to be a former prosecutor and is now an employee of the Department of Justice, a direct conflict of interest to the court's impartiality and Canons 1, 2, and 3 of the Judicial Code. Any reports or orders by the Magistrate Judge act as nothing more than a disguised order of the judge, since the judge adopted the magistrates recommendations without question or comment, failing to make findings of fact and law on all issues presented, including all of the issues that establish that Title 18 is unconstitutional on its face, fail to allow discovery as required by law to prove the court's lack of jurisdiction, fail to take verified pleadings, unopposed, as true, as required by law and the court's "independence"; and fail to hold a hearing as required by a challenge to the courts jurisdiction.

Are the judge and magistrate bound by the judicial code or code for judicial employees? Neither a district court judge nor a magistrate can create law, but may interpret law. No such authority was ever conceived by the Framers to allow judges to create law. If the magistrate and judge of the court are bound by the judicial code and code for judicial employees then they must comply with that (those) codes, which means they must dismiss the indictment and conviction.

The failure to provide an impartial judge in the instant case constituted structural error and per se prejudicial error and requires reversal of any conviction. See Satterwhite v. Texas, 487 U.S. 249, 256 (1988); Accord Neder v. United States, 527 U.S. 1, 7, 8 (1999); Sullivan v. Louisiana, 508 U.S. 275, 279 (1993); Edwards v. Balisok, 520 U.S. 641, 647 (1997); Johnson v. United States, 520 U.S. 461, 469 (1997); Johnson v. United States, 520 U.S. 461, 469 (1997); Sullivan v.

Louisiana, 508 U.S. at 279; Rose v. Clark, 478 U.S. 570, 577-78 (1986); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510, 523 (1927).

Not only are the judge and magistrate biased as a matter of fact, but the judge presiding over the case is not an Article III judge, therefore depriving Petitioner of his Constitutional rights. The judge can not sentence Petitioner as a matter of law.

First, the judge has taken a Form 61 Commissioners Oath of Office. Second, the courts were transferred into the Department of Justice by Executive Order during the bankruptcy of the United States in the 1930s and act as administrative courts, in violation of the Separation of Powers Doctrine. Third, to be a Constitutional judge, the judge must meet 3 criteria: First, he/she must be appointed by the President; Second, he/she must be in good behavior; Third, her/his pay can never be diminished. The judge may meet the first two criteria, but can never meet the third criteria (according to Supreme Court precedent) and therefore could not preside over the proceedings and could not make enter sentencing.

With no Article III judge on the case, the case must be dismissed.

X. ISSUE SIX: THE SALE OF CONVICTION BONDS RENDERS THE PROCEEDINGS VOID

The sale of bonds based on Petitioners conviction by the court creates a financial conflict of interest and is a violation of the Separation of Powers Doctrine, rendering the conviction void. The district court is a corporation listed in Dun & Bradstreet. It sells bonds based on Petitioners conviction. To find the bonds cusip number you go to enter case number as follows:

For example, if your listed case number

If your listed case number is 1:05-cr-30039-AA and 1:05-cr-30039-AA-1.

Put in 30039-AA and 30039-AA-1 and the CUSIP number was the same for this case.

The fact that the court makes money from convictions is a violation of numerous Constitutional provisions, including slavery and peonage as well as the Separation of Powers Doctrine.

Petitioner requests discovery related to the courts conflict of interest.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Petitioner Requests that a Writ of Habeas Corpus be issued, his indictment be dismissed with prejudice, specific findings of fact and law be issued, Title 18 be declared unconstitutional, Petitioner's indictment order be voided, the District Court's actions pursuant to Petitioner be declared ultra vires, the District Court's actions be declared in violation of Due Process and 28 USC § 455, and the indictment and conviction be declared void. The issues related to Title 18 herein have never been decided by a court of precedent based on findings of fact and law, are jurisdictional, and carry no procedural default.

Petitioner declares under penalties of perjury that the facts stated or alleged herein are true and correct pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746.

An affidavit renders the facts presented as true unless it is rebutted by affidavit and fact. The court is presumed to know the law and can pull the cases.

JOURNAL OF THE

JUNE 18

Thereupon, at my request, the Attorney General on March 19 instituted an action and obtained an injunction in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee. This order enjoined both the Corporation and the Council, and all persons in active participation with them, from engaging in any strike or lock-out or from interfering with normal continuance of work, or from making any change in terms or conditions of employment other than by mutual agreement.

On March 24 I reconvened the Board of Inquiry. Negotiations between the parties continued, with the assistance of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. On May 18 the Board of Inquiry submitted to me its second report, stating that the position of the parties remained unaltered and the dispute unsettled.

On June 1 and 2 the National Labor Relations Board conducted a secret ballot of the employees to ascertain whether they wished to accept the final offer of settlement as stated and made by the employer. The employees, by a vote of 771 to 26, rejected the employer's last offer. On June 7 the National Labor Relations Board certified to the Attorney General the results of this election. On June 8 the employees at a union meeting took action looking to a possible stoppage if the injunction were lifted and if the employer unilaterally placed in effect the terms proposed in its final offer.

On June 10, pursuant to section 210 of the Labor Management Relations Act, the Attorney General moved the court to discharge the injunction. The injunction was discharged on June 11.

During this period, the parties continued negotiations, with the assistance of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. On June 15 the parties reached agreement on the terms of a new contract.

All parties to this dispute and the Government agencies concerned complied with all legal and procedural requirements of title II of the Labor Management Relations Act, 1947.

A number of additional facts concerning this dispute are set forth in the first and second reports of the board of inquiry. Copies of these reports are transmitted to the Congress with this message.

Both parties are to be commended for achieving settlement of this dispute without an interruption of work.

The dispute at Oak Ridge has raised some question, nevertheless, as to the sufficiency of present collective-bargaining methods in atomic-energy installations.

This question is somewhat different from others which have arisen in the past. On the one hand, it is clear that the national security and the development of the beneficial arts and sciences are bound up with the progress of our atomic-energy program. Thus, every dispute which threatens to seriously impair that program imperils the national health and safety.

On the other hand, it is equally clear that the progress of our atomic-energy program requires the support and drive of broad sectors of the American economy. In order to encourage such support, the Atomic Energy Commission has lodged in its contractors a large measure of responsibility and authority. The progress of the program is equally dependent upon the full and willing support of the men and women who work in atomic-energy plants and laboratories.

Under these circumstances, it is imperative that the most successful techniques of the collective-bargaining process should be adopted for the atomic-energy program.

The objective should be twofold: The parties should continue to enjoy the maximum of voluntary action and freedom of choice; secondly, the public interest must be protected at all times.

I believe that special study should be given to the problem of peaceful and orderly settlement of labor disputes in Government-owned, privately operated atomic-energy installations, such as those at Richland, Wash.; Oak Ridge, Tenn.; Los Alamos, N. Mex.; the Argonne National Laboratory, Chicago, Ill.; and others.

I propose, therefore, to establish a commission composed of men having expert knowledge in the field of labor relations, to study this problem and to make such recommendations as they may find necessary. The commission should explore the question whether any special legislation should be enacted to protect the national interest without depriving management or labor organizations of the initiative and freedom necessary for the progress of our atomic-energy program. The commission should study ways and means of adapting to the atomic-energy program the best of our experience in the complex field of labor relations. The commission should concern itself also with special aspects of the problem, such as questions of bargaining representation, uniformity of working conditions and wages, and procedures for grievance handling.

The commission should concern itself, in short, with the broad code of conduct which should be observed by management and labor in their relations with each other in this vital program.

In appointing this commission I shall request the advice of the Atomic Energy Commission and the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy both as to the membership of the commission and the specific questions to be studied.

I believe that the report of this commission, which should be submitted as soon as possible, will be of great value in guiding contractors, labor organizations, and the Government in this new and vital field. I am confident that this is the best avenue to follow to achieve and maintain that proper balance between freedom and responsibility which is the tradition in all our economic relations, including those between management and labor.

HARRY S. TRUMAN,
THE WHITE HOUSE, June 18, 1948.

The message was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor and ordered to be printed.
